Do you have life or work experience that could be recognised?

Our trainers can assist with a hassle free RPL processes!

If you have skills and knowledge as a result of years of experience that you can formally acknowledge, you can apply for recognition of prior learning. Choose this option upon enrolment and one of our trainers will call you to discuss!

This is a must for anyone that possesses valuable experience and industry expertise!

Has it been a while since you studied; afraid you may fail?
You don't need to fear!

We have new to workforce, mature aged learners and volunteers completing qualifications – you wont be alone!

Everyone deserves the right to achieve their full potential; you are no different!

If you are concerned about a barrier that may hinder your learning; our FREE Student Mentor services can assist with additional services to support you throughout their learning; this may include:

- Additional visits or appointments
- More regular phone contact
- Access to mentoring or tutoring services
- A mature and non-judgmental approach to your learning without bias

How much will my course cost?

Each enrolment type has its own fee structure; this way we are able to offer multiple options to meet the varying needs of our learners. The NSW Government has introduced new fee arrangements for government-subsidised vocational education and training (VET), which took effect with the implementation of Smart and Skilled on 1 January 2015. Should you wish to confirm your eligibility for any of the many government-subsidised training opportunities, we can assist with a quick eligibility check followed by a written quote!
